The Initial Accreditation/Approval Process

The Overall Accreditation Process

Development of Program/Initial Processes

Programs seeking Initial Accreditation/Approval must first comply with several requirements including a letter of intent, a completed initial application, payment of an initial application fee, and approval of a preliminary report.

All documents should be submitted in a single application packet.

The Self-Study Process

The first step in the evaluation of a program is the program's own self-evaluation. This is accomplished by the Program Director with the cooperation of the program faculty and administration. NAACLS has made the forms that the reviewers will use available for download on the NAACLS web site (www.naacls.org) as an aid for program officials to evaluate their program. While the program's self-evaluation certainly should review the NAACLS Standards, other documents, such as the programmatic and institutional mission statements, supply additional information for the functions of the program. The eventual result of this self-evaluation is the Self-Study, which is a document that demonstrates the program compliance with the Standards. Recommendations for assembling the Self-Study are found in the Standards Compliance Guide.

The Self-Study reviewer is charged with the review of the Self-Study, ensuring that it adequately demonstrates the program's compliance with the Standards. The reviewer is evaluating the Self-Study, rather than the program, thus assuring that good practice processes are documented. In addition, the reviewer is the earliest outside source to review the adequacy of compliance. The program receives the Self-Study Review and is directed to develop a Response to the Self-Study Review. The Response attempts to clarify issues identified in the Self-Study Review, and perhaps to develop new policies and procedures to address the concerns noted.

The Site Visit Process

Site visits are fact-finding journeys. The objective of a site visit is to verify and supplement information presented in the Self-Study and the Response to the Self-Study Review. The Site Visit Report is the product of the Site Visit, and is a summary of information that the program has provided for the site visitors, keyed to the NAACLS Standards. The program receives the Site Visit Report and is directed to develop a Site Visit Report Response. The Response attempts to clarify issues identified in the Site Visit, and perhaps to develop new policies and procedures to address the concerns noted.

Review by a Program Review Committee

Based on the review of Self-Study Review, the Program's Response to the Self-Study Review, the Site Visit Report, and the Program's Response to the Site Visit Report, the appropriate Program Review Committee makes determinations as to the compliance, partial compliance or non-compliance of a program with the Standards, and recommends accreditation and approval actions to the NAACLS Board of Directors.

Quality Assurance Assessment

The Quality Assurance Committee reviews all accreditation or approval recommendations before the sponsoring institution is notified of the Program Review Committee recommendations and before the recommendations are sent to the Board of Directors for final approval of accreditation and approval awards

The Review by the NAACLS Board of Directors

Based on the recommendations of the Program Review Committee, and with review of consistent application of the Standards to insure that decisions are not arbitrary, capricious, or inconsistent, the Board of Directors makes the final determination to award, withhold, or withdraw Accreditation/Approval.

Initial Accreditation/Approval Packet

Institutional administrators submitting the Initial Accreditation /Approval Packet must include the following:

1. A letter of interest signed by the sponsoring institution's chief executive officer, declaring the program's intent to start an accredited\approved program.
2. The Application for Initial Accreditation/Approval to NAACLS.
3. Proof the Initial Application Fee has been paid.
4. Required Items for the Preliminary Report.

Preliminary Report Requirements

The Preliminary Report is a general overview of the program and although not a full Self-Study Report it does form part of the foundation for the Initial Accreditation/Approval Self-Study Report. As such, the Preliminary Report must provide adequate evidence that the program will be able to meet the NAACLS Standards for Accreditation or Approval to be accepted as satisfactory. The program director must submit an electronic copy of the Preliminary Report to NAACLS. It should include:

As such, the Preliminary Report must provide adequate evidence that the program will be able to meet the NAACLS Standards for Accreditation or Approval to be accepted as satisfactory. The program director must submit an electronic copy of the Preliminary Report to NAACLS. It should include:

Standard I. Sponsorship

- Sponsoring Institution: Provide documents of current accreditation by a regional or national agency for the sponsoring institution.
- Affiliations: Provide letters of intent (or good faith) or signed affiliation agreements from proposed clinical sites, as well as evidence that enough sites are available to accommodate projected numbers of students.

Standard II. Assessment and Continuous Quality Improvement

- Program Evaluation: Summarize a documented plan for continuous and systematic assessment of program effectiveness with a plan for program modification and improvement.

Standard III. Resources

- Physical Resources: Describe facilities, equipment, and supplies sufficient to achieve program goals.
- Budget Information: Provide a budget sufficient to achieve program goals or a letter of financial support.

Standard IV. Students

- Program Mission, Goals and Outcomes: Provide program goals that will align, correlate, and support NAACLS entry levels competencies including both core and unique standards for the profession.

Standard V. Operational Policies

- Recruitment: Describe student recruitment, processing of applications, and selection of students appropriate to the size and scope of the program. Describe how admissions criteria and essential functions and student outcomes measures will be communicated to prospective students.

Standard VII. Faculty

- A completed program official approval form with all required documentation and narratives included. Or, submit proof of NAACLS Approval of the Program Director. Submit additionally required documentation for Medical Director and/or Education Coordinator, if applicable.
- Personnel Plan: Describe the faculty/personnel plan (additional faculty positions if appropriate) adequate to support the number of students proposed in the program and to achieve the program goals. Provide a list of faculty and the courses they will be teaching if possible.
- Advisory Committee: Describe the membership of Advisory Committee which provides input into the program/curriculum to maintain current relevancy and effectiveness.

Standard VIII. Curriculum

- Program and Course Descriptions: Provide a description of the proposed length of program and program tracks and rationale for course sequencing. In addition to the above description, provide a program of study that contains all required program courses in recommended sequence, course syllabi, course descriptions and measurable student learning outcomes for all program specific courses.
- For one course, provide an example of a lecture and associated evaluation tools that align with identified program outcomes and will provide evidence of learning in the cognitive, affective and psychomotor domains Program course must include all of the instructional areas delineated in Standard VIII.A specific for the level of program.

Upon review of the Initial Accreditation/Approval Application Packet, if the committee is reasonably assured that the program will meet the Standards; NAACLS notifies the program director to begin the Initial Self-Study process. Additional documentation and clarification may be requested before a program is encouraged to proceed. Programs are allowed three (3) opportunities to submit requested items to achieve a satisfactory Preliminary Report Review. If the program is unable to achieve a satisfactory review upon the third submission, the program must begin the initial accreditation/approval process from the beginning, including submission of a new initial application and application fee.

Once the Initial Accreditation/Approval is accepted as satisfactory, NAACLS staff will assign a Self-Study Report due date (and a site visit date for programs seeking accreditation). Ideally, the Self-Study Report due date is prior to graduation of the first class of students. The site visit date is typically no later than three months after the class graduates and within six months of the Self-Study Report due date.

6. Submit the Self-Study Report.

See the NAACLS Website for instructions on submission of the self-study report.

7. Achieve "serious applicant" status.

NAACLS considers a program a "serious applicant" for accreditation/approval when it has achieved the following steps:

- a. Submitted an Application for Initial Accreditation/Approval.
- b. Submitted the Initial Application Fee.
- c. Received approval for the Preliminary Report.
- d. Submitted the completed Self-Study Report.

Periodically, certification agencies request information from NAACLS regarding whether or not a program is considered to be a "serious applicant." Until NAACLS has received these items, it does not report that a program is a "serious applicant." NAACLS has no authority to determine admission to a certification examination. All questions regarding eligibility for such examinations should be directed to the following certification agency:

ASCP Board of Certification, 800-267-2727; info@ascp.org

A program seeking initial accreditation/approval may remain in serious applicant status for 18 months. After that time, the program must reapply.

The program director must inform students seeking admission that the program is applying for accreditation/approval and that their eligibility to take some certification examinations may depend on whether or not the program achieves "serious applicant" status. This information must be transmitted in writing.

NAACLS Initial Application Packet Template

The Initial Application Packet is a general overview of the program that must provide adequate evidence of potential compliance with the NAACLS standards for Accreditation or Approval. This is not the same as a Self-Study report, which would be the next step after approval of the Initial Application Packet. Please note, NAACLS Staff will not distribute the Initial Application Packet for review until all items are included within the Initial Application Packet template.

NAACLS recommends that the program consider the following items:

- Make sure your version of Adobe Reader is up to date. This program is free, please see link: www.adobe.com
- Download the template from the website and open it with an Adobe program (often computer operating systems use a web browser as a PDF “preview” default. This preview cannot be edited. This document can only be edited with an Adobe program.
- NAACLS Standards for Accredited and Approved Programs should be downloaded and reviewed. This can be found on the NAACLS website by visiting WWW.NAACLS.ORG. You can then click on the “Program Directors Tab” and scroll down. You will see all relevant documents listed on the right hand side.
- A program has three opportunities to have their Initial Application Packet approved. If a program does not have their report approved after the third opportunity, they must wait for a year before applying again. Programs are provided feedback after a negative review.
- Narrative answers should be clear and concise.
- Required documentation should be edited in a way to present only the essential information to NAACLS reviewers. For example, instead of a whole catalog, including only the relevant pages with relevant information highlighted.
- Please name your file attachments with the Standard it pertains to (i.e. Standard1-ABCHospitalAffiliationAgreement.pdf).
